

AYUSH TRIPATHI

Loves to make things with code.

I have made online teaching web app for my school and coaching institute.

Hello I am Ayush, I am 19 years old. I am from Lucknow. I love to read books of fiction and spirituality. I have a good grip on programming and have won three interschool competitions in logic building and time complexity. can listen to indie music for hours... also has a hunger for scifi and thriller movies I love to meet new people and get different opinions on ideas. I also like to travel (alone) to new places which have a historical significance.
